

CLIOHWORLD
Fourth Plenary Conference and Working Meeting
Oulu, 4–5 June 2010

"History of Globalization and Globalization of History"

Friday, 4 June 2010: Morning session open for general public

Venue: Kuusamonsali (YB210)

9:30–9:45 Welcomes:

Olli Silvén, Vice-Rector, University of Oulu

Ann Katherine Isaacs, CLIOHWORLD coordinator

Guðmundur Hálfðanarson, CLIOHWORLD co-coordinator

9:45–9:55 The Role of Erasmus Networks in Modernising European Higher Education

Katia de Sousa, European Commission, Executive Agency Education and Culture,
CLIOHWORLD Project Officer

9:55–10:20 Global History – A Challenge for Research and Teaching

Olavi K. Fält, Professor of History, University of Oulu

10:20–10:45 Japanese Views on Global History

Toru Takenaka, Professor of History, Osaka University

10:45–11:10 Coffee

11:10–11:40 Wooden Towns, Globalisation and Historical Archaeology in the Northern Coastal Areas of the Bothnian Gulf

Timo Ylimaunu, Ph.D., Research Fellow, Department of Archaeology, University of Oulu

11:40–12:05 Unification of the Globe by Disease: The Third Wave

Heini Hakosalo, Ph.D., Research Fellow, Department of History, University of Oulu

12:05–12:25 EUROCULTURE: an Erasmus Mundus Experience of History Learning and Teaching in a Global Context

Janny de Jong, Ph.D., Senior Lecturer; Director of Studies, Erasmus Mundus MA
EUROCULTURE, University of Groningen

12:25–12:55 Roundtable, Questions and Debate: speakers and open floor

Local organiser of the Oulu meeting: Seija Jalagin, Research fellow, Department of History, University of Oulu, Tel. +35885533363, email: seija.jalagin@oulu.fi

CLIOHWORLD is an Erasmus network that builds on the work of previous European History Network projects (CLIOH, CLIOHnet, CLIOHnet2, CLIOHRES). It intends first, to develop learning and teaching of EU history itself, including European integration and expansion, and, second, to promote knowledge of the links with the histories of other continents as well. See www.cliohworld.net