

Contents

Anna-Kaisa Salmi, Tiina Äikäs, Sanna Lipkin: Introduction	3
Visa Immonen: The mess before the modern – Karen Barad’s agential realism and periodization in Medieval archaeology in Finland	7
Anna-Kaisa Salmi: Man’s best friends? The treatment of the remains of dogs, cats and horses in early modern northern Finland	33
Minna Lehtola: hoWhy theory and the cultural transition in the Sakha Republic	51
Pirjo Hamari: Signifying Roman in the east – Identity and material culture in Roman archaeology	77
Paula Kouki: Changing times, continuing traditions: the transfer of religious traditions at Jabal Harun	103
Sanna Lipkin: Textile-making and religion in central Tyrrhenian Italy	119
Juha Tuppi: A walk through the valley of death: The evolution of the Etruscan concept of the afterlife	133
Jari-Matti Kuusela: Style as distinction – burials reflecting distinction and the development of social stratification of the Iron Age elites of Southern Ostrobothnia, Finland	155
Samuel Vaneckhout: A social panarchy: social changes on the Bothnian Bay between 6500 and 4000 cal BP	181

Archaeology of Social Relations - Ten Case Studies by Finnish Archaeologists

Mirette Modarress: The past and present archaeological research in Iran – Development and some ethical questions	193
Milton Núñez: Some thoughts on the workshop and Social Archaeology in Finland	215