

USE-2008:

From Information Provision to Knowledge Production

University of Oulu, Finland, June 23-25, 2008

Monday – June 23rd, 2008

8.00–18.00 Registration

8.00–17.45 Doctoral Workshop, Lecture hall HU207

8:00	Setting up the posters
9:00	Welcome and introductions led by the senior researchers/tutors
9:30	Doctoral students' introductions
10:30	Coffee break
10:45	Session 1: An exercise on networking
11:30	Session 2: Formal review of the posters on the basis of the doctoral students' presentations
12:00	Lunch and an opportunity to review posters
12:45	Session 2 continues
14:45	Coffee break
15:00	Session 2 continues
17:00	Afternoon break
17:15	Group exercise
17:45	The bus to Vihiluoto departs outside the Faculty of Education, at door C5
18:30-22.00	Get-together at Vihiluoto

Tuesday – June 24th, 2008, Lecture hall KTK112

8.00–9.00	Registration
9.00–9.15	Conference opening
9.15–10.15	Keynote  Professor Christine L. Borgman, University of California,          Los Angeles, USA:  From Knowledge to Data to Knowledge:          Expanding the Horizons of Information Studies
10.15–10.45	Coffee break

10.45–11.45	Session 1: Chair Professor Maija-Leena Huotari Hazel Hall, Napier University, UK &amp;  Gunilla Widen-Wulff, Åbo Akademi University, Finland:  Social exchange, social capital and information sharing in online environments:  lessons from three case studies Annette Albert &amp; Christian Schilcher, Darmstadt University, Germany:  Dealing with work-related experiences and experimental knowledge in  organizations
11.45–12.45	Lunch
12.45–13.45	Session 2: Chair Professor Reijo Savolainen Cathrine Nengomasha &amp; Kingo Mchombu,  University of Namibia, Namibia:  Records management enables for knowledge creation and sharing:  a case study of the public service of Namibia Michael Kristiansson,  Royal School of Library and Information Science, Denmark:  Entrepreneurship teaching conducted as strategic reflexive conversation
13.45–14.30	Coffee & Poster session
14.30–15.45	Session 3: Chair Professor Reijo Savolainen Vesa Suominen, University of Oulu, Finland:  Use and user, and the dialectics of sociological constructionism and  hermeneutical philosophy Huotari, M-L., Oulu University, Kortelainen, T., Oulu University &amp;  Iivonen, M., Tampere University, Finland:  Twenty years of Information Studies at the University of Oulu
15.45–16.00	Practical information for the conference delegates
17.30–	Reception at the Great Hall of Oulu City Hall
19.00–	Conference Dinner at Maikkula Mansion  The bus to Maikkula departs outside the City Hall at 18:30

Wednesday – June 25th, 2008 Lecture hall KTK112

9.30–10.30	Keynote Professor Blaise Cronin , Indiana University, USA: Toward a Rhopography of Scholarly Communication
10.30–11.00	Coffee break
11.00–11.45	Session 4: Chair Professor Gunilla Widén-Wulff Michael Olsson, University of Technology, Sydney, Australia: Academic citation as a strategic discursive practice
11.45–12.45	Lunch at Restaurant Snellmania
12.45–13.45	Session 5: Chair Professor Maija-Leena Huotari Christopher P. Lueg, University of Tasmania, Australia: Beyond FAQs: From sharing to knowledge generation in online travel communities  Niemelä Raimo & Huotari Maija-Leena, University of Oulu, Finland: Information use and enactment. The perspective of senior citizens' everyday life information behaviour
13.45–14.00	Closing of the conference
14.30 –	Excursion to Kierikki , archaeological exhibition and activity centre The bus to Kierikki departs outside the Faculty of Education (door C5) at 14.30