

USE-2008 – Doctoral Workshop

Programme

- 08.00-16.00 Registration
- 08.00–9.00 Setting up the posters
- 09.00–09.30 Welcome and introductions led by the senior researchers/tutors
Prof. Christine Borgman, UCLA, USA; Reader Hazel Hall, Napier University, UK; Lecturer Michael Olsson, University of Technology, Sydney, Australia; and Post Doc Researcher Raimo Niemelä, University of Oulu, Finland introduce themselves and tell the students about their research and experience in PhD work
- 09.30–10.30 Doctoral student introductions
Doctoral students will have approx. 5 minutes each to introduce themselves and to tell everyone about their PhD thesis
- 10.30–10.45 Coffee break
- 10.45–11.30 Session 1: An Exercise on networking
Reader Hazel Hall, Napier University, UK
- 11.30–12.00 Session 2: Formal review of posters on the basis of doctoral students' presentations
Senior Researchers:
Professor Christine Borgman, UCLA
Reader Hazel Hall, Napier University
Lecturer Michael Olsson, Sydney University of Technology
Post Doc Researcher Raimo Niemelä, University of Oulu
- 12.00–12.45 Lunch and an opportunity to review posters
- 12.45–14.45 Session 2 continues
- 14.45–15.00 Coffee break
- 15.00-17.00 Session 2 continues
- 17.00–17.15 Afternoon break
- 17.15– 17.45 Group exercise
Participants are split into three teams for mind-mapping the links between all the work presented.
- 17.45–18.30 Transportation to Vihiluoto
Departure outside the Faculty of Education (door C5)
- 18.30–22.00 Get-together at Vihiluoto – sauna, swimming and some snacks