

Assessing Narrativism

Young Researchers' Meeting in the Philosophy of History and Historiography

University of Oulu

June 4, 2015

Programme

Venue: HU106, Faculty of Humanities, University of Oulu

- 10.00-11.00 Jorma Kalela (Turku): How to Assess a History
- 11.00-11.15 Coffee break
- 11.15-12.00 Anton Froeyman (Ghent): Never the Twain Shall Meet?
How Narrativism and Experience can be Reconciled by Dialogical Ethics
- 12.00-12.45 Zoltán Boldizsár Simon (Bielefeld): On the Difference between Experience and Experientiality
- 12.45-13.30 Lunch break
- 13.30-14.15 Michael J. Kelly (Leeds): Voiding History: Speculative Objectivity and the Anti-Historical Figure of Postnarrativity
- 14.15-15.00 Eugen Zeleňák (Ruzomberok): Narrativism and the Roles of the Past
- 15.00-15.15 Coffee break
- 15.15-16.00 Ilkka Lähteenmäki (Oulu): Constructing Historical Worlds
- 16.00-16.45 Helena Hammond (Roehampton): Narrativism, Antivisualism, and their Discontents
or, the Unexpected Resurgence of History
- 16.45-17.00 Coffee break
- 17.00-18.00 Paul Roth (California Santa Cruz): Reviving the Philosophy of History

Preceded by book launches, June 3, at 17.00: Kari Väyrynen and Jarmo Pulkkinen (eds.):
Historian filosofia (Vastapaino); Jouni-Matti Kuukkanen: Postnarrativist Philosophy of Historiography
(Palgrave). Location: TurusenSaha, Kulttuurisali, Pikisaarentie 10, 90100 Oulu

Organised by The Oulu Centre for Theoretical and Philosophical Studies of History

(<http://www oulu fi /centre for philosophy of history />) in co-operation with Philosophies of History
(<http://philosophies of history .blogspot .co .uk />)

Participation is free for everyone. Please register by May 29: ilkka.o.lahteenmaki@oulu.fi