Sisältö This course is a phenomenon-based learning experience which has a focus on the major language learning skills areas such as reading, writing, speaking, listening as well as vocabulary expansion and grammatical competence development. Active participation in the Moodle course and Zoom sessions is mandatory and all projects must be completed successfully. All deadlines must be met. The course includes 8 projects each of which requires individual and teamwork. The theme of the course is business to business (B2B) interaction which includes acquiring business partners and interacting with them to practice ways to gain and maintain B2B relationships. Meetings, negotiations, and exchanging business documents are the primary activities practiced in the course.

Mode of delivery:

The course is held in Moodle and Zoom.

Learning activities and teaching methods:

The course consists of eight projects and each project is estimated to take about 13 hours of time. The course normally requires 12 weeks of study but for open university this can be condensed.

Target group:

Open university students

Recommended or required reading:

The course materials are in Moodle

Assessment methods and criteria:

The assignments will be graded using the 1-5 scale or pass/fail. The course grade is based on written homework, verbal assignments and project quizzes.

Grading:

The grading scale is 1-5 or Fail.

902138Y Business Writing (B2/C1) 4.0 op

Proficiency level:

B2-C1

Status:

This course is compulsory for the students who have chosen English. If the student will complete AHOT 1A for matriculation exam results of L or E, then the student need complete only Module 1 or 2 of Business Writing. But this same option exists for the Integrated Text and Business Studies course, it also has two modules and the AHOT 1A can replace either module in that course. However only a total of 2 credits can be replaced so the student must choose which course module to replace with the AHOT 1A credits.

Required proficiency level:

ECTS Credits:

4 credits / 104 hours of work

Language of instruction:

English

Timing:

Learning outcomes:

By the end of the course, students are able to:

- assess and express in writing own professional competitive advantage following self-analysis
- demonstrate the ability to write clear and effective business documents and email messages conveying information and details accurately
- demonstrate the ability to use an appropriate level of formality and style for business communication
- demonstrate mastery of the conventional formats and layouts of different types of business documents and email messages
- write business proposals, reports, and press releases with a good degree of fluency using the essential components of each in a professional business register.

Contents:

Contents: This is a writing course which consists of two modules. Module one is a semi self-study course. In module one of the course students will meet in the classroom for three sessions and will participate in three to four follow-up tutoring sessions. Following the classroom sessions students will study the instructions and examples of various business documents and write their own business documents, for example a letter of enquiry, letter of response and letter of introduction. During this part of the course the student will focus on writing fluency, appropriate professional tone as well as special vocabulary specific to written business communication. Students will complete the assignments, and meet with the instructor in private tutorial sessions to get feedback on their own writing skills. This process will be repeated three-four times before beginning the second part of the course. All homework should be written as though the student is employed by a company and the visual appeal should be at such a level that any organization in the business world would approve.

In module two of the course, the focus is on improving grammatical proficiency at higher levels of English. All grammatical exercises are designed to bring the writer closer towards or into the C1 level. This is followed by a review of effective and fluent written communication including writing proposals, reports and press releases. Attention will be paid to professional writing style and tone, writing positive messages and understanding the difference between informal and formal English. Special attention should be used on the delivery of written communication, on the visual appeal of the documents. All homework should be written as though the student is employed by a company and the visual appeal should be at such a level that any organization in the business world would approve.

Mode of delivery:

classroom teaching, homework, independent self-study

Learning activities and teaching methods:

For the entire four-credit course: classroom sessions include 14-18 hours of instruction depending on the mode selected by the teacher and 36-40 hours of independent homework associated with the classroom instruction / 3-5 hours tutoring and 18-20 hours of independent homework associated with the tutoring sessions / 4 hours revision / 4 hours Lesson 5 mini project / 6 hours Lesson 6 final project / 3 hours written exam and 10 hours preparation for the exam

Target group:

Students of open university.

Prerequisites and co-requisites:

Recommended optional programme components:

Recommended or required reading:

The course materials include materials in Moodle and may include a handbook compilation which must be purchased at the campus bookstore.

Assessment methods and criteria:

Course assessment is carried out by assessment of the packages in Module 1, some of the homework tasks of Module 2 and the final exam. If there are large discrepancies between homework grades and exam grade, the exam grade will be the determining factor in the course grade.

ECTS Credits:

Language of instruction:

English

Learning outcomes:

By the end of the course, you are expected to be able to:

1. understand clearly-spoken English on a range of topics discussed in class
2. participate in pairwork discussion of familiar everyday topics
3. describe your own language learning style, with reference to a variety of learning strategies presented in class
4. self-evaluate objectively, and describe plans for future learning

Contents:

Easy communication tasks are provided to help you activate your use of English; you will spend a lot of time in class interacting in English with your classmates, in pairs or in small groups. Learning to learn is an important theme throughout the course, too; you will hear about a variety of alternative learning strategies (including some developed for dyslexics), and have opportunities to try them out. To help you reach an understanding of the learning strategies that work best for you, you will have chances to reflect together with your classmates, and compare past and present experiences of language learning.

Opiskelumuoto: Language and Communication Studies

Laji: Course

Vastuuyksikkö: University of Oulu, Open University

Opetus suunnattu: University of Oulu, Open University

Opintokohteen kielet: Swedish

Proficiency level:

This course is only for Finnish speaking students with CEFR-level in Swedish language. We don't offer Beginners courses in Swedish.

Status:

This course unit is compulsory to all students, who have had their schooling in Finnish, except those who have at least 60 ECTS credits of Swedish studies in their degrees. The language proficiency provided by the course unit is equivalent to the language proficiency required of a state official with an academic degree working in a bilingual municipality area (Act 424/03 and Decree 481/03).

According to the requirements of the law, the student must be able to use Swedish both orally and in writing in various professional situations. Achieving this kind of proficiency during a course unit that lasts for only one semester requires that the student has already achieved the necessary starting proficiency level prior to taking the course.

Required proficiency level:

The required starting proficiency level for students of all faculties is a grade of 7 or higher from the Swedish studies at secondary school (B-syllabus) or equivalent knowledge AND a passing grade from the proficiency test held at the beginning of the course unit. Based on this proficiency test the students are directed to brush up on their language skills with self-directed course if it is deemed necessary; mastering basic vocabulary and grammar is a prerequisite to achieving the necessary language proficiency for the various communication situations one faces in professional life.

If a student has not completed Swedish studies (B-language) at secondary school with a grade of 7 or higher, or his/her language skills are otherwise lacking, he/she must achieve the required proficiency level BEFORE taking this compulsory Swedish course unit.

ECTS Credits:

4 ECTS credits / 106 h of student's work

Language of instruction:

Swedish

Mode of delivery:

Contact teaching

Learning activities and teaching methods:

2 x 90 minutes of contact teaching per week and related exercises, self-directed study, a total workload of 106 hours per course unit.

Target group:

Open university students

Prerequisites and co-requisites:

See Required Proficiency Level above

Recommended optional programme components:

Recommended or required reading:

Course material will be distributed in class.

Assessment methods and criteria:

The course unit focuses on improving both oral and written language skills and requires active attendance and participation in exercises, which also require preparation time. 100% attendance is required. The course unit tests both oral and written language skills. Students participate in the teaching in either autumn semester or spring semester

Alternative Methods of Completion, more information on our homepage: <http://www oulu.fi>

[/languagesandcommunication/](http://www oulu.fi/languagesandcommunication/)

Read more about assessment criteria at the University of Oulu webpage.

Grading:

Oral and written language proficiencies are tested separately and assessed using the so called KORU-criteria (publication of HAMK University of Applied Sciences, 2006).

Separate grades will be awarded for the successful completions of both oral and written portions of the course unit: the possible passing grades are satisfactory skills and good skills (see language decree 481/03). The grades are based on continuous assessment and testing.
