Right for Residence in Finland

- EU students: register your stay online at https://migri.fi/en/eu-citizen

- Registration necessary if you stay for over three months. Requires also a visit at the Immigration office downtown. You can also apply for the Finnish ID number at the same time i.e. would not need a separate visit to the Register office (see next slide).

- Nordic students staying over 6 months: registration at local Register Office. Address: Isokatu 4, open Mon-Fri 9.00-16.15

- Non-EU students: should have applied for residence permit already in your home country.

- Finnish Immigration Service
- www.migri.fi
Finnish ID number

inform your faculty’s study affairs within two weeks after arrival!

- All international students must get a Finnish ID number and inform it in person to their own faculty’s study affairs within two weeks after arrival.

- Local Register Office:
  - Address: Isokatu 4, 90101 OULU, open Mon-Fri 9.00-16.15

- Documents needed for the registration are:
  - Study certificate (get this at the Faculty Study Affairs)
  - Passport (or other official ID)
  - Residence permit card (if applicable)
  - ID Number application form (available at the Register office)

- N.B. If you have a residence permit card the ID number is most likely already available at the back of it → inform it to study affairs.
Insurance

- If you do not have an insurance to cover accidents, get one now!!
- You are not insured by the University of Oulu.
- Slippery roads, biking, snow sports – accidents may happen!
- Make sure you know your insurance coverage – not all cover for example winter sports such as skiing or skating. The coverage should also extend to your personal belongings/housing.
Banking in Finland

- Opening a bank account is easy and free of charge.

Visit one of the main bank branches in downtown Oulu (ask your kummi for help). The bank might require you to reserve a time for the opening or it might open the account immediately. Have your passport and residence permit (non-EU students) with you.

EU students: do you really need to open an account? You can pay bills from your home country’s bank with SEPA codes!
Local Bus Card

You can buy monthly bus pass at Oulu10 office (address: Torikatu 10).

Single fare 3,30 € for trips within Oulu

Value ticket for 30 days 42 € (ages up to 24)

Mobile ticket, app available for iOS and android

If you are over 24 years, take study certificate with you.
