

Sulin Cheng is a professor in the Sport and Health Sciences faculty at the University of Jyväskylä, Finland. She is also a Chair professor at Shanghai Jiao Tong University. Dr. Cheng's research spans a wide range of disciplines including body composition, physical activity, nutrition, public health, endocrinology, physiology and genetics. Dr. Cheng has conducted several well-funded (from government agencies, foundation, and industrial companies) multidisciplinary and multi-center projects in Finland, USA, and China as Principal Investigator (PI) and co-PI in the field of body composition related health and technology issues spanning childhood to old age. Her over 15-year longitudinal study of growing children and their families (the Calex and Calex-family-study) yielded very significant scientific findings with great social impact. She has over 140 international peer reviewed publications in scientific journals. She has received 8 international awards and 6 national awards.