How to record a presentation on Zoom

Kaamos Symposium 2020

An annual biology conference organized by PhD students at the University of Oulu, Ecology and Genetics Research Unit

When: 9th - 11th December 2020
Where: Online in Zoom
Abstract & Poster deadline: 1st November
E-mail: KaamosSymposium@gmail.com

Workshop: Dr. Clemens Küpper and Dr. Luke Eberhart-Phillips “Open Access databases and large datasets”

Plenary speakers:
Prof. Tom Gilbert, University of Copenhagen
Prof. Jochen Wolf, LMU Munich
Prof. Alexandre Roulin, University of Lausanne
Dr. Clemens Küpper, Max Planck Institute For Ornithology
Poster session: Online in Zoom and on the website

More information can be found on the website:

Sponsored by TNS-DP UniOGS
1. Log in to Zoom account
2. Host a meeting – Video On
3. Make sure that your name is correct. Activate microphone and camera.
4. Share screen
5. Move video out of the way & Press record
Welcome to attend

Kaamos Symposium 2020

An annual biology conference organized by PhD students at the University of Oulu, Ecology and Genetics Research Unit

When: 9th - 11th December 2020
Where: Online in Zoom
Abstract & Poster deadline: 1st November
E-mail: KaamosSymposium@gmail.com

Plenary speakers:
Prof. Tom Gilbert, University of Copenhagen
Prof. Jochen Wolf, LMU Munich
Prof. Alexandre Roulin, University of Lausanne
Dr. Clemens Küpper, Max Planck Institute For Ornithology

Workshop: Dr. Clemens Küpper and Dr. Luke Eberhart-Phillips “Open Access databases and large datasets”

Poster session: Online in Zoom and on the website

More information can be found on the website:

Sponsored by TNS–DP UniOGS
6. When you are done: Stop recording & Leave meeting
7. Meeting Recording is converted automatically when leaving the room.
8. Rename .mp4 file with your name and send to <KaamosSymposium@gmail.com>

If the file is too large for your email system, you can use WeTransfer, OneDrive or Dropbox