

COURSE PROGRAM356017J The International Research Seminar in Collaboration with the University of Oulu

Topic:	An invited lecture by Japan from Kyushu University: MSN, PhD, RN Kimie Fujita “ Changes in QOL of patients who underwent total hip arthroplasty -from qualitative study to quantitative study ”
Time:	18-19.09.2018 Lecture and research seminar
Place:	University of Oulu, Research Unit of Nursing Science and Health Management, Aapistie 5A
Course leader and coordinator:	Professor Helvi Kyngäs & senior lecturer Pirjo Kaakinen, University of Oulu
Learning outcomes:	Student will learn to observe and critically interpret the development of healthcare and health sciences nationally and internationally. Student will gain competence in communicating in foreign language by presenting research and by networking with other researchers in international research seminar.
Credits:	1 ECTS
Literature:	Current literature, research reports and lecture materials.
Assessment methods and criteria:	Active participation, oral or poster presentations.