Practical information

Presentations:

There will be Microsoft PowerPoint projection facilities available in each room. You can either run your presentation from your USB stick, or you can upload it onto the computer ahead of your presentation (during the breaks). Each presentation is allotted 30 minutes. This means a 20–25 minutes presentation and 5–10 minutes for questions.

Abstracts:

If you wish to make changes to your abstract please send a revised version by April 30th.

Location:

The conference will take place in the main campus area – Linnanmaa campus – of the University of Oulu, approx. 6 km to the north from the city center:

<http://kartta.ouka.fi/IMS/en/Map?layers=Opaskartta&cp=7218053%2C474871&z=1&title=Oulun%20yliopisto&language=fin>

Linnanmaa campus map (conference rooms are located near to the entrance C – in the north of the campus):

Transportation:

From the airport to city center:

The airport is located 13 km southwest of the city center. You can reach downtown Oulu either by bus or by taxi. Buses number 8 and 9 serve the airport. The bus fare from the airport to city center is €5.80, ca. 25–35 minute drive. The taxi fare from the airport to city center is approximately €30–40 and to the university ca. €35–45.

From the train station and bus station to city center:

Both the train station and the bus station are located on the eastern edge of the city center. You can reach all downtown hotels easiest on foot (ca. 10–15 minute walk).

To the university:

The Linnanmaa campus of the University of Oulu is located 7 km north of city center. You can reach the university by taking any of the following buses: 1 (→ Jylkynkangas), 2 (→ Ritaharju), 3 (→ Ritaharju), or 8 (→ Teknologiakylä). The journey takes around 15–20 minutes. Convenient bus stops for downtown hotels are Toripakka, Kaupungintalo and Pokkitörmä. We recommend that you exit the bus at the bus stop Yliopisto P when heading to the university.

Bus number 8 operates between the airport and the university. To reach the university from the railway station or the bus station, walk to bus stop Toripakka or Kaupungintalo and take any of the buses above.

The bus fare from city center to university is €3.30. Route information is also available on the website: <http://www.oulunjoukkoliikenne.fi/journey-planner>

Accommodation:

There are several hotels and Bed & Breakfast opportunities in Oulu. The easiest way to compare them and to make a reservation might be to use the www-services of international hotel agencies, for instance Ebookers.

Conference fee:

The participation fee (40 € for PhD students / 80 € all other categories) includes:

- Entrance to the conference as a speaker
- A conference folder and associated materials
- Refreshments and lunch on both days of the conference

- Conference dinner (Thursday evening)
- A hard copy of the conference publication (including postage)

Fees must reach us by bank transfer no later than 30th April 2017. Please use the following payment details:

Payee: University of Oulu

SWIFT: DABAFIHH

IBAN: FI66 8919 9710 0010 29

Code: 24003726 (Please note that this is not an index number, but you should add it as a compulsory supplementary information)

Conference publication:

Manuscripts intended for the conference publication may be written in English or Finnish. The editorial staff approves manuscripts for publication after they have been reviewed by a referee. Papers must not exceed 40,000 characters in length, including figures (will be printed in grayscale), references and appendices. All Finnish-language manuscripts must include a summary in English not over one page in length. The author is responsible for having the language of a foreign-language article checked. The text should not be hyphenated and it should contain minimal formatting. The font size is 12, the font type is Times New Roman and spacing between rows is 1.5.

The article should contain footnotes without a separate list of sources. The font size of the single-spaced footnotes is 10. All the bibliographical information of a book must be given the first time it is mentioned. The name of the source is written in italics, the title of the article enclosed in quotation marks and the referenced pages given, separated by a comma. For example:

- Robert Bideleux and Ian Jeffries, A History of Eastern Europe. Crisis and Change. Routledge, London and New York 2001, 110–112.
- Kristina Brazaitis, “Donelaitis Viewed through Rose-tinted Glasses: Did Johannes Bobrowski Misread the Lithuanian Bard?”. Journal of Baltic Studies, Volume XXXV, Number 1, Spring 2004, 54–55.
- Silviu Miloiu, “The Csangos of Romanian Moldavia”. The Forgotten Minorities of Eastern Europe – The History and Today of Selected Ethnic Groups in Five Countries. Edited by Arno Tanner. East-West Books, Helsinki 2004, 133.
- Helene Cooper, “Rice Clashes With Russian on Kosovo and Missiles”. The New York Times 31.5.2007.

UNIVERSITY OF OULU

Subsequent references to a book:

- Bideleux and Jeffries 2001, 115.
- Brazaitis 2004, 59–62.
- Miloiu 2004, 148–149.

In the case of unprinted sources the document must be identified and archive information given in sufficient detail. For example:

- Minute by Esmond Ovey, 26.1.1922, FO 371/8104, N762/82/63, Public Record Office (PRO), London.

These instructions may be applied at the author's discretion to other categories of material. The authors themselves are responsible for the content of their articles, the correctness of the references and the copyrights of reprinted material.

Manuscripts must be submitted in electronic form as doc(x) files. Manuscripts must be at the editorial office by 30 September 2017. Each author receives one copy of the publication free of charge. The publisher has the right to publish the articles also in electronic form in the internet.
