

What are you doing this summer?

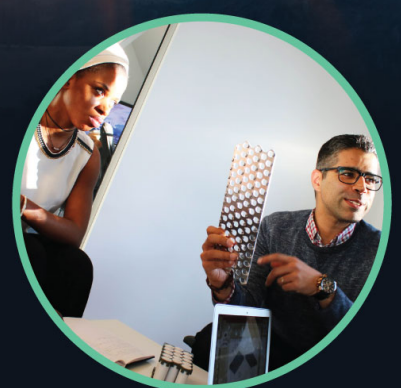

Apply for a Northvolt Internship and throw yourself into a world of opportunities and challenges, face-to-face with one of most important industrial projects being undertaken in Europe today.

Engage with cutting-edge research and next-generation manufacturing

Develop yourself through real work with real problems, learning from professionals of the highest caliber

An opportunity to be a part of European industrial history and contribute to the green transition

Positions available in:

Environmental | Legal | HR | Finance

Software | Electrical | Automation

Mechanical | Manufacturing | Product Development

Project Management | Business Development

Supply & Logistics | Communications

Candidates will be selected on a rolling basis, so don't hesitate to apply online today at northvolt.com/internships

northvolt[®]